NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

AVIATION CADET

Otto Paul Bueren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto B. Bueren, 3304 San Jose avenue, Daly City, is now enrolled as an aviation cadet in the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight school for Pilots at Maxwell field, Alabama, located on the outskirts of Montgomery, the capital of that state.

Here the new class of cadets is receiving nine weeks of intensive military, physical and academic training preparatory to beginning their actual flight instruction at one of the many primary flying schools in the Army Air Forces Southeast Training center.

Cadet Bueren is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, and was a shipfitter trainee when he entered the Army of the United States. He served four months as an enlisted man before being accepted as an aviation cadet in the Army Air Forces, July 5, 1943, at Maxwell field, Alabama.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Andrew A. Marcucci, "Al" to his many local friends, enjoyed a brief furlough here, July 2 to 8 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Marcucci, 443 Bellevue avenue. When he came home he was wearing the silver wings of a bombardier graduate and had a commission as second lieutenant. These honors he received at the Midland, Texas, school for Army bombardiers.

On June 18, at Odessa, Texas, Marcucci married Miss Blanche Spencer, a Texas girl. He and his bride visited his parents here during his recent furlough. He has now gone to Arizona for additional training at a navigation school.

"Al," who is remembered in Daly City by many as a good singer, led his graduation class at Midland in the bombardier school song.

IN TEXAS

Wallace Stratford, above, is a corporal stationed with the medical corps, U. S. Army, at Camp Arthur in Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stratford, 1075 Hanover street, and the brother of Charles Leroy Stratford, whose photo taken in Australia appeared in last week's Record.

Stratford, in addition to the more serious aspects of Army life, has established an enviable record as a baseball star at the Texas camp. He has been in the service about a year now.

GRADUATES

Private First Class Jack Prescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Prescott, 315 Peoria street, Daly City, has been graduated from an intensive course in glider mechanics and now is prepared to blast the Axis as one of America's "commandos in coveralls." Sheppard field, near Wichita Falls, Texas, is one of the many schools of the Army Air Forces Technical Training command which trains the specialist technicians to maintain our mighty air armada. He is now eligible to win a rating as a corporal or sergeant and to play a vital role in a new, pioneering branch of the service—gliders.

Before entering the school, he was trained at one of the basic training centers of the Army Forces Technical Training Command and learned to fight the Axis with other things besides the tools of his trade.

FROM TENNESSEE

Private Milton Peterson writes from Nashville, Tennessee, to say that both he and Tony Mendola, Daly City, enjoy The Record. Both men were formerly at Camp Haan in California.

SOUTH AMERICA

"Our boys sure are seeing the world these days!" comes as an apt phrase when letters, such as one which arrived from Sergeant Art Linhares this week, comes to The Record office.

Linhares, whom the paper last heard from at Boca Raton field, Florida, is now in South Ameri-

Home Nursing Chairman Announces Fall Classes

"Every woman can help fight the war on the home front by adding to her store of knowledge the facts about home nursing," Mrs. R. L. Crane jr., in charge of training in Daly City, announced today. She advised local housewives that, with the growing shortage of doctors and hospital facilities, home nursing is vital from either the individual or community standpoint.

Although no new classes are contemplated until September, Mrs. Crane asked that local women, who will want to take the home nursing classes sponsored by the American Red Cross, contact her at once at RAndolph 6479. Lining up the candidates for fall instruction now will enable the class to get off to a good start when school opens, she explained.

Jefferson Offers Clinic On Canning

Jefferson Union high school has inaugurated a summer canning clinic in order to provide the wide-spread public education such authorities as Wilton L. Halverson, director of public health for the State of California, say is necessary to prevent many deaths from botulism, a poisoning caused by improperly canned foods.

In home preservation of food it is important that the methods insure safe, palatable food in which the nutrients have been retained as far as possible; that the methods can be followed easily and be safe for the operator; and that they can be carried out as far as practicable under the conditions of priorities and rationing, according to local and state experts.

Mrs. Genevieve Lundin and Mrs. Louise Bodinghouse, two trained women from the San Mateo Junior College Canning center, opened the program of demonstration at the high school here, Monday, July 19. A second session was held, yesterday, July 21, and next week's dates will be Monday, July 26, and Wednesday, July 28. In addition to advice and competent instruction, there are pressure cookers available for the use of the public, free of charge.

Only requirement for free use of the cookers is that housewives

HONORED

Judge John J. Fahey jr. (above) was honored Saturday, July 17, at the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue, when Stanford Parlor No. 76, Native Sons of the Golden West, presented him with two desk flags, the American flag and the Golden Bear flag.

The presentation was made by Judge George B. Harris of the San Francisco municipal bench. Approximately twenty members of the parlor, under Chairman Charles Roberts, San Francisco, were present.

The ceremony took place at 12:30 p. m. Among the distinguished guests were Sheriff Dan Murphy and Superior Court Judge James G. Conlan.

Fahey, a well-known Daly City and San Francisco attorney and son of Councilman John J. Fahey sr., is judge for the First township.

Director Bodien Asks For Constructive Criticism On Civilian Defense Setup

What has caused Daly City Civilian Defense machinery to get "rusty?"

This is the query which Director Arthur J. Bodien asks, this week, in all sincerity. The letter reprinted below discusses the inception of civilian defense protection in this community, its progress, and present status. He calls for constructive criticism, for reactivation of the entire program here, for careful attention on the part of all residents to the facts that "the war is not won yet," and that the necessity for adequate civilian defense protection is by no means past.

"Since the bombing of Pearl Harbor, December 7th, 1941, and until today, twenty months have passed with our country in one of the most trying times of its history, and our western shores, while unmolested, up to the present time, by our enemies, still aren't safe from a duplication of a sneak attack which would have no direct meaning, only to build up the morale of the home land of the Japs.

"The people of Daly City, realizing the dangers that confronted our country on that dark day of sorrow, flocked to the City Hall as good Americans to register as civilian defense workers with but one thought in mind, their country, their homes, their loved ones, and the right of worship.

"We made a remarkable showing with over seven hundred willing workers signing the roll in two days, and being the first city in our country to organize for defense.

"This drew to the attention of many cities and towns in our state, along with the Federal Government, the importance of preparedness and self protection, and your leaders were proud of the fact that we were leading the field in helpfulness to our country.

"Your city immediately secured medical supplies, such as bandages, medicines, stretchers, operating tables and most everything that would aid relief in our emergency, along with gas masks, helmets, wrecking equipment, control center, and extra fire engines, that would doubly protect our homes.

"As the months went by, all were interested in their work going busily to meetings and drills and performing a real service, a service that money couldn't buy, only love for home and country brought this condition about. As time went on, and no enemy appeared, and we live our normal life with a few minor exceptions,

People Keep Right On Being People, See?

For those who may regard the police department news as nothing to treat with flippancy this reporter has full sympathy, but week by week the unbiased observer will note that people keep right on being people and although many of the cases which the Daly City police handle are really tragic, many of them have their hilarious notes:

For example:

Last Wednesday, wartime shortages must have become unbearably acute for whomever broke into the home of Mr. Briggs, 599 Vista Grande avenue, and stole his alarm clock. Cash,

Next Call For Men To Come August 11

Next quota of men to be supplied to the armed forces by Daly City Draft Board No. 103 is set for August 11, according to Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk, and 25 men are to be inducted.

In July, two groups were inducted from the local board's area. On July 10, six men were accepted. Rudolph Ozbic, Colma, and William Melvin Wright, Washington and Cora streets, were the only local men in the group. Both entered the U. S. Army.

Four men, none of whom were Daly City or Colma residents, were inducted, July 14.

Mrs. Flynn pointed out that induction furloughs for those men who go into the Army are now 21 days. Navy furlough is still only 7 days.

The staff at the Daly City hall headquarters of the board are now reclassifying the 3B and 4H men, to eliminate these two classes altogether. 3B men who are

Druids Take Charge At Servicemen's Club

Hillcrest Circle No. 143, U. A. O. D., will be in charge of the Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, during the week of July 25, it was announced today by Mrs. Anne Eason, spokesman for the committee in charge. Currently, hostess duties are being handled by Jefferson Union High School P. T. A.

Hours at the club were recently curtailed to give main attention to the evening hours when most of the boys use the center. They are now 7 p. m. to 12:30 a. m.

Mrs. Eason reported that attendance continues good. A special skating act was enjoyed during the social, Saturday evening, July 17. Shirley and Bruton, a local couple, put on the show.

Some special social activity is planned for every other Saturday night at the center and usually includes dancing.

Legion Seeks Old Records

Daly City residents were urged again, this week, by A. G. K. Jakobsen, representing Daly City Post No. 410, to ransack attics and basements and to delve into old phonograph albums in search of phonograph records to turn over to the American Legion scrap record drive, which continues until July 31.

Several dozen collection depots have been designated covering the Daly City area. The list was published in last week's Record. Added to that group are: Theatre grill, 6233 Mission street; Daly City Coffee shop, 6339 Mission street; Mission Bell chateau, 6143 Mission street; Wit's End, 6055 Mission street; Tiny's New Place, 6045 Mission street. The Record, 3317 San Jose avenue, has a barrel for scrap records, too.

In explaining the purpose of the drive, Jakobsen said:

Only Two-Thirds Of Motorists Apply

Only about two thirds of the motorists in the area served by War Price and Rationing Board No. 83-12-3, which includes Daly City, had their applications for "A" gasoline books in to the board office, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, by the deadline, yesterday, according to Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk. She pointed out that the new stamps became valid, July 21, and that those who had not applied prior to that date naturally did not have stamps in time to use them on the valid date.

Those who did not send in their applications, properly filled out,

Good News For 'Kids'

To Start Summer Recreation Today

A summer recreation program for local children of grammar school age begins, today, July 22, with Miss Maximae Morris in charge. First day of the schedule will be indoor sports and handicraft from 10 a. m. to noon at Pershing school, 631 Hanover street, followed by supervised outdoor play at Acton park, Brunswick and Acton streets, until 5 p. m.

It is planned, according to the Daly City Recreation committee, to have the indoor sessions at Pershing school every Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday morning from 10 to 12. Sports on the Acton playground will be supervised until 5 p. m. each day, except Saturday when the program will conclude at noon.

Miss Morris, 186 Irvington street, has had teachers' training and been employed as a recreation supervisor at a boys' club in San Francisco. She comes to the position well-qualified, according to the city committee and local educators.

Children are invited to make use of the summer recreation facilities provided under the new program, which will continue until the opening of school in September.

Tentative arrangements for the program were made at Friday night's meeting of the city recreation committee and plans were confirmed by the city council, Monday night, when presented by Mrs. Anne Eason representing the group.

Those at the committee meeting, Friday, were Mayor A. J. Gaggero, Councilmen Eugene V. Lynch and Edmund Cavagnaro, William J. Sweeney representing R. L. Crane jr., Arthur J. Bodien, Mrs. Maisie Boyle, and Mrs. Anne Eason.

Senior Air Raid Wardens To Meet

Chief Air Raid Warden Harry Melicker will call the regular meeting of Daly City's Senior Air Raid Wardens to order at 8 p. m., tomorrow evening, July 23, at the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

He announces that a special talk on high explosive bombs will be given. It will deal with how such bombs are constructed, how they explode, and the extent of

Gay Film Fare Tells Novel Story

"Slightly Dangerous," now showing at the Daly City theatre, brings Lana Turner and Robert Young together "for laughing purposes only," although they also figure in a romantic love story. It provides the maddest, merriest farce either has ever been seen in.

Miss Turner plays a soda clerk in a store of which Young is manager. He reprimands her for mixing sodas blindfolded so she leaves town and goes to New York—poses as an amnesia victim, and convinces a millionaire there that she is his long lost daughter. Walter Brennan plays the millionaire. Young is blamed for her "suicide," and must produce her to save his job. Therefore he sets out to expose her amnesia ruse, and amid turbulent and laughable episodes they discover that they're in love.

As for Lana's situation with long-lost daddy Brennan, a compromise works out a happy solution for all.

Miss Turner, as a comedienne, shows a rare gift, and is very beautiful in a gorgeous Irene-designed wardrobe. Young is perfect as the harassed store manager. Brennan plays a "doting sugar daddy" effectively and comically. Eugene Pallette, Howard Freeman, Dame May Whitty, Millard Mitchell, Ward Bond, Pamela Blake, Ray Collins, Florence Bates and Alan Mowbray efficiently aid and abet the laugh-making.

Wesley Ruggles directed with his usual deft skill at comedy, and Harold Rosson photographed Miss Turner beautifully. Bronislau Kaper contributed a lilting musical score.

ON FURLOUGH

Corporal William E. Talbot, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Talbot, 244 Westlake avenue, enjoyed a furlough here, July 14 to 18. He has now returned to Texas where he is stationed with an air drome squadron at the Dalhart, Texas, air base.

Talbot, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school and a student at San Mateo junior college prior to entering the armed forces, has been in the service ten months. His field is ground crew work.

PENNSYLVANIA

Private Franklyn H. Hatfield, 373 Winchester street, is a member of the Army Specialized Training unit at Lafayette college, Easton, Pennsylvania.

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

At last! Lana Turner together with Robert Young in an M-G-M picture, "Slightly Dangerous," now at the Daly City theatre. They are teamed in a fast-moving comedy, which has Lana an amnesia victim by her own choice and enjoying it, particularly the chase by Robert Young, who has to redeem himself back home. The various twists given to the plot make it unusually funny. And before it is over, Lana and Bob do the very thing you would expect. Uh-huh! Pose for this picture.

Clarence Smith Weds Margaret Brady

Miss Margaret Brady, 2 Farragut avenue, became the bride of Private Clarence R. Smith, Daly City soldier stationed at Camp Howze, Texas, Thursday, July 1. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Clement Wartman at the Texas camp.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brady, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Leona Reposa, 67 Hillcrest drive. Smith, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, is with the medical battalion of the U. S. Army and has been in the armed forces since December 4, 1942.

by the deadline date can expect to wait their turn without special consideration, Miss Blue said. A large staff was on hand to process the "A" book renewals and they worked nights last week and this to assure motorists of their books on time. Those who did not utilize this special service when it was available are "just out of luck." They will be taken care of as soon as possible, of course, but the staff cannot be expected to inconvenience itself further for those who fell down on their part of the bargain, Miss Blue explained.

Among the volunteers who assisted in processing the many applications for "A" books at the South San Francisco office was Mrs. Christa J. Amundsen from Daly City.

"Manpower at home is essential to support fighting-power overseas" . . . E. G. Grace, president, Bethlehem Steel

Manpower on the Home Front

Thousands of men arriving for work in a Bethlehem shipyard. Down this yard's busy shipways slide many of the nation's cruisers, destroyers and aircraft carriers. Bethlehem repeatedly has made records for delivering vessels well ahead of schedule.

This is the story of manpower in Bethlehem steel mills and shipyards, of men and women who have come by the thousands from all walks of life to do a job in backing up our fighting forces with a continuous flood of materials. These men and women are vital to the battle of production.

Manpower at Bethlehem Steel has been multiplied three times in three and a half years. Here are the figures:

NUMBER OF BETHLEHEM EMPLOYEES

Poland invaded, September 1939	100,000
Fall of France, summer 1940	120,000
Pearl Harbor, December 1941	190,000
Tunisia, May 1943	290,000

Employment in Bethlehem's shipbuilding and ship repair yards alone has grown from 15,000 in 1939, to nearly 180,000.

The enlistment in our manpower army continues from week to week and from month to month. The total of Bethlehem employees will exceed 300,000 by the end of the year. To reach this total force, and provide for replacements of those going into the armed services and others, many thousands more men and women will be hired.

Facts About Bethlehem Workers

Manpower is the heart of Bethlehem's current production of a ship a day. Manpower makes possible the meeting of its large commitments for ordnance and other war-steel products. All other problems such as materials and supplies are secondary — the essential dependence is on manpower.

Thousands of men from non-essential trades are joining Bethlehem war-work armies.

More than 13,000 women are employed at Bethlehem plants and shipyards, and the number is constantly increasing.

Veteran employees are zealously teaching the newcomers, so that they can quickly handle their appointed tasks.

New employees earn while they learn, in special training classes and in on-the-job training.

Sympathetic study of each person's abilities puts "square pegs in square holes."

Wages are the highest in the history of shipbuilding and steel, and in the top group of all industries.

Promotion is rapid, as opportunity to advance comes far more swiftly than under normal conditions.

Bethlehem employees are friendly, high-grade people. The great majority have education in the high school grades, and thousands are graduates of colleges, crafts and professions.

More than 50,000 Bethlehem employees are now serving in the armed forces, a fact which gives added seriousness of purpose to those working to produce the supplies.

To work in Bethlehem shipyards and plants is to be in the front line of industry, doing a real job to help win the war.

SOME NEW BETHLEHEM EMPLOYEES FROM VARIOUS OCCUPATIONS

From leatherworker, to machine operator. From driller on jewelry, to burner. From autosalesman, to materials inspector. From plumber, to meter repairman. From office clerk, to ship draftswoman. From delivery man, to furnace loader.

FROM ALL OCCUPATIONS

Bethlehem workers come from virtually every walk of life to serve in these war-work armies. Here are 60 instances of former occupations of men and women who are now producing ships and combat materials.

WHAT SUN?

This story is only for those who will not detect the sinister smile of R. L. Crane jr. between the lines:

The sunlight you've noticed glinting on the hills behind Daly City, this week, (and no fair spoiling our point by asking what sunlight) is not really sunshine at all. It's only the gleam emanating from the smug faces of the lieutenants who won their bowling shirts back, Friday night, July 16.

After a series of the most ignoble defeats (or so Crane explains it) the lieutenants rallied their forces and defeated Conci's Shell Service keglers to the tune of about 140 pins on that evening.

Next game in the highly controversial campaign of civilians vs. army officers will take place tomorrow evening, July 23, at Lincoln Bowl.

War Training Office Gives Refresher Classes

Doing a rushing business in helping war workers whose minds have gone rusty on much of the mathematics and science they once knew, the University of California War Training office is next week opening a free refresher course in essentials of trigonometry in San Francisco, specializing in the many applications of this subject in technical and industrial fields.

The course, which is being given in the university's downtown classrooms at 22 Second street, starts, Wednesday, July 28 at 7:30 p. m., and continues for eight Wednesday evenings.

Two other San Francisco courses will also be opened next week that will lead to openings in the engineering and accounting departments of large Bay area war industries.

Men and women who are mathematically-minded will be prepared in a course in structural detailing and design to take key positions in interpreting construction plans into simplified details for the guidance of workmen on the job. This course opens Monday evening, July 26, at 7 p. m.

Women with business experience, retired business men and others with bookkeeping background will be offered a course in industrial accounting also opening Monday evening at 7 p. m. Those who enroll may take their choice of morning or evening sessions which will be held three times a week for a period of ten weeks.

Waves To Observe First Birthday

Marking the first anniversary of the act of Congress creating the Women's Naval Reserve, the WAVES, 'birthday' celebrations will be held in San Francisco and cities and towns throughout the Twelfth Naval district it was announced today.

Captain C. L. Arnold, director of Naval Officer procurement in San Francisco declared: "With the Women's Reserves of the Navy now nearly one year old, the WAVES have become an accepted and important part of the Navy's many shore establishments. Side by side with our bluejackets the WAVES are doing a job that has won the admiration and respect of Navy men everywhere. On their first birthday, July 30, the Navy congratulates the WAVES with a sincere 'Well Done!'"

Coincident with the first anniversary celebrations it was announced that on August 1, enlisted WAVES will move into the modern club house of the Western Women's club. Nearly 700 girls will eventually be housed at the club house. Captain Arnold revealed that by late fall there will be nearly 1500 WAVES on duty in Northern California, Nevada, Utah, and Colorado.

We Must Have Cake

By Frances Lee Barton

"WE must have cake occasionally" is a common expression, these days. Even though we cannot enjoy it as often as we formerly did, most of us are determined to have cake, in spite of the fact that we may dip a trifle heavily into some rationed foods. So women are searching for recipes that will assure them of good cake. What must be "scarcer", should surely be "better". Here's a suggestion:

Honey Nut Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; ⅔ cup butter or other shortening; ½ cup sugar; ½ cup honey; 3 eggs; 1 cup finely cut nut meats; ⅓ cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, and cream thoroughly; then add honey in thirds, beating well after each addition. Add ¼ of flour and beat until smooth and well blended.

Beat eggs until thick and light and nearly white; add to cake mixture and beat well. Add nuts. Add remaining flour in thirds, alternately with milk in halves, beating very well after each addition. Add vanilla. Bake in greased 9-inch tube pan in slow oven (325° F.) 1 hour and 5 minutes, or until done.

"RADAR" IN WAR AND PEACE

Some of the deadliest weapons of this cruel and deadly war will contribute immeasurably to comfortable, happy living once the fighting is done. As in all wars, developments have been made in the course of this one that would have required many years longer to perfect, without the impetus of necessity.

Foremost on the long list is "radar," the device making such spectacular history in detecting approaching enemy craft and determining distances to enemy forces. "Radar" may come to be as great a boon to humanity in the future as it is a scourge to our enemies now.

It will protect airliners from crashing into unseen mountains or other objects; it will guide ships at sea away from drifting icebergs. It will guard homes from thieves and "make the job of surveying a game." It will guide the blind like a guardian angel, warning dutifully of approaching objects.

The uses of "radar" will be manifold in the interest of peace and good living. It is just, it seems, that the great war weapons which have contributed their share to the necessary carnage of battle, should have their chance to redeem the men of good will who created them, by their even greater contributions to humanity in peace.

ALASKAN VACATION

Maybe you can't go very far on your vacation this year. But, when it's "all over, over there" and the family car is free once again to roam far and wide, there will be new vacation worlds to explore and conquer.

The building of the Alaskan-Canadian highway, which was spurred by urgency of war, has provided a road leading right into the heart of the northern wonderland. Alaska expects big things of the tourist trade after the war. In fact, tourist travel may become to Alaska what it was to such countries as France and Italy prior to 1939.

Alaska's governor, Ernest Greuning, recently said, "Our gold mines may become exhausted; no one knows how long the salmon runs may be depended upon. But you can't exhaust scenery—not glaciers and mountains and vast forests. Those are the things which tourists want, and Alaska has them in plenty."

Best of all, such a vacation should not greatly strain the family budget. So, in years to come, we may answer the "call of the wild" in person—and take the family along.

To Alaska it may prove another "gold rush."

P. G. and E. Receives Special Recognition

The Pacific Gas and Electric company has received a special governmental award in recognition of its numerous and substantial contributions to civilian defense by widespread and thorough cooperation with wartime control of lighting.

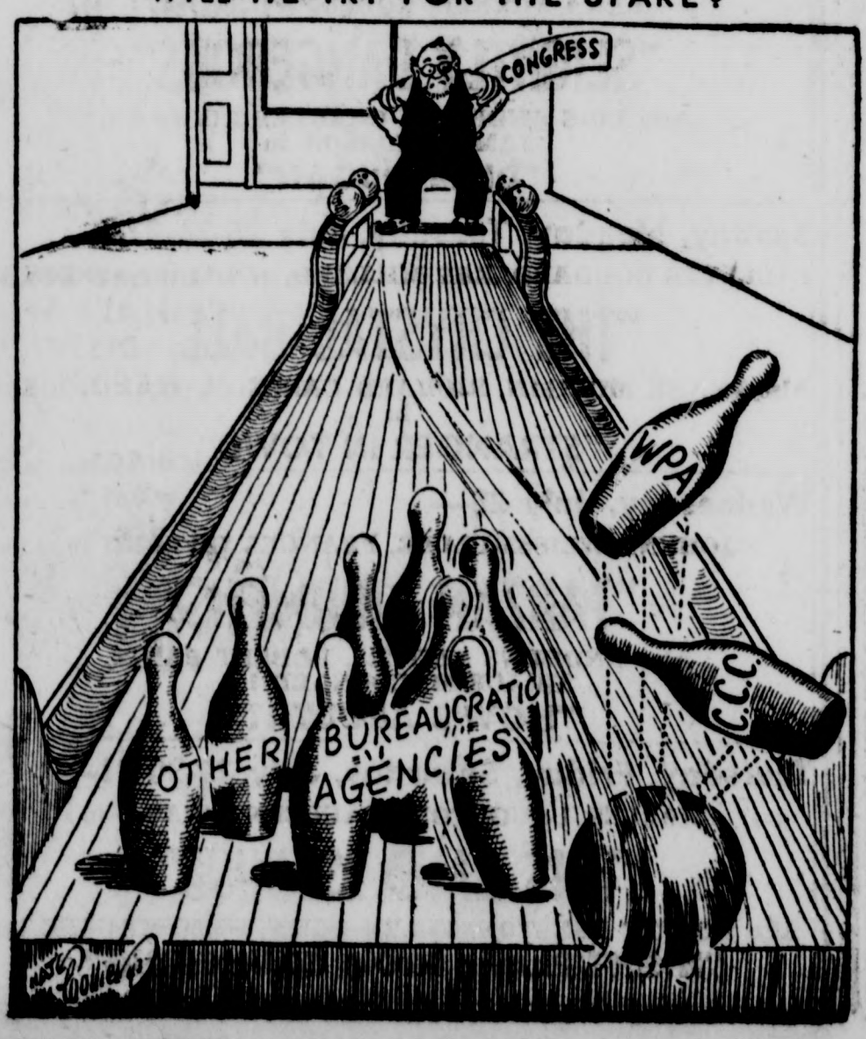

This award, a new one just inaugurated by the Office of Civilian Defense, consists of a pennant and a certificate. It was presented to the P. G. and E. and other Pacific slope utilities at a luncheon in San Francisco, sponsored by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and the San Francisco Commercial club. The ceremonies were led by James G. Sheppard, western regional chairman of the Office of Civilian Defense, and George L. Levison, acting regional director of the Ninth Civilian Defense Region.

As one item of its extensive cooperation in lighting control, the P. G. and E. shielded at least 50,000 street lights in Northern and Central California. In July, 1942, to help create a permanent dimout along the coast to protect shipping, it darkened the ocean side of more than 11,000 street lights in coastal communities between Trinidad, near the Oregon boundary, and Oceana, San Luis Obispo county, including the lights on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge and the Golden Gate bridge. In accordance with dimout regulations effective on October 25, 1942, it shielded 39,000 street lights to eliminate or control skyglow.

Those two jobs, so extensive they required more than 300 workmen, were a small part of the P. G. and E.'s complete pro-

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

THE old saw that a prophet is not without honor, save in his own country suffered a severe setback during the past year. It was just a year ago that the Book-of-the-Month Club, in a unique, last minute decision, distributed Major Alexander P. de Seversky's book "Victory Through Air Power," to its members, accompanied by a warning to laymen that in the reading of that book, they should be careful to keep their feet on the ground. Between June, 1942, when the book was sent out, and June, 1943, when the allies are preparing for the invasion of continental Europe, many of the things Major Seversky wrote about, as possible in the unpredictable future, have already come to pass.

The allies have stepped up their round-the-clock bombing of the industrial heart of Germany; Pantelleria, an island outpost of Italy, surrendered to overwhelming air power; and more precisely in point than anything else, power dams located in the Ruhr Valley were destroyed by underwater explosions, just as the author of "Victory Through Air Power" had predicted would be done. The argument over the ability of air power to win a war entirely by itself (a contention, incidentally, Major Seversky never advanced) is still hot and raging, and there are many sound reasons given why victory will not be achieved until large masses of ground forces actually move into Axis territory, but the major premises of Major Seversky have already been borne out in the course of twelve short months.

During the past year, the author of "Victory Through Air Power" spent a good part of his time in Hollywood, helping Walt Disney in the filming of the book. The picture, incidentally, will be released some time during this summer, with Major Seversky taking an active part in it. When he arrived at the Disney studio, he was given a large, handsome office, suitably decorated for a man deemed a great authority on planes, the history of aviation, and the future course of the war in the air. One of the decorative motifs was a huge mural, behind the Major's desk, showing a mass flight of war planes. When Seversky came into the office, on his first visit, he immediately ordered the mural changed. It turned out that all the planes shown in the picture were Japanese Zeros.

The film will be a unique Disney production, with none of the usual Disney characters appearing in it. Indeed, the artists at the studio devised a whole series of drawings showing Donald Duck, Mickey Mouse, Goofy the Horse and Pluto the dog, trying to get into the picture anyway—peeking in through Major Seversky's private door, marching up and down carrying picket signs reading: "Major Seversky Unfair to Organized Labor," and finally moving over to a rival studio asking for jobs over there.

Jefferson Offers Clinic On Canning

must notify the school in advance of their interest in the program, their names, addresses, and phone numbers, and how many quarts and what kind of vegetables they will want to can. The sessions start promptly at 9 a. m. on the designated days. The school assured the public, today, that the program would be continued as long as sufficient interest in the project was shown to warrant having the cookers and instructors here. As soon as reservations are properly made, dates following the scheduled July 26 and 28 will be announced.

Officials at the school office pointed out that each woman should bring a pot holder, funnel, dish towels, ladle, and tested jars. Coffee jars, for which proper lids are on the market this season, are acceptable. Regular sizes, such as pints or quarts, must be used.

Monday's participants were Mrs. William Lagomarsino, Mrs. Alfred Varni, Mrs. L. E. Robertson, Mrs. Mary Lambert, and Mrs. Christine Clay. Those who want to make reservations to avail themselves of the several important offerings of the summer canning clinic should write to Jefferson Union high school, 6996 Mission street, AT ONCE.

Hours are from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and those who bring a large number of vegetables and have an "all day job" for themselves were advised to bring a lunch as the school cafeteria is not open.

Senior Air Raid Wardens To Meet

the damage they do. Regular wardens, as well as the seniors, are invited to attend.

Those senior wardens and deputy senior wardens who are entitled to the insignia of rank designating their positions in civilian defense were urged to be present at the July 23 meeting especially if they were not on hand at the July 9 session when the presentation of the insignia was officially made. Those entitled to the awards will be issued them.

Melicker made an appeal for all senior wardens and those under their jurisdiction to turn in to him at tomorrow night's meeting the federal personnel records recently issued to them for signing.

Next Call For Men

married men doing defense work and with children are being designated as 3A. The 4H classification was formerly used for all men over 38, but these are now being sorted according to their proper classification as occasioned by marital status, children, or occupation. The letter H carries over into the new group to designate that the man in question is past 38 years of age.

What Do You Know?

Since this nation went to war, The Record has run nearly three hundred individual stories about Daly City boys in the armed forces. This is indicative of just how much of our population is off fighting actively for the preservation of the American way of life. The least we at home can do is give "the boys" a hand. One of the small ways we can do that is to announce where the boys are, what they are doing, and those honors which they receive in the course of their service.

Parents and friends of local servicemen are invited to call The Record, RAndolph 3215, whenever newsworthy information about their children or pals is available. We also like to use pictures but here a word of caution to prevent dissatisfaction for all: don't bring us folio size, treasured family portraits (the engraver might lose them; they're too big, and frankly, they cost us too much money to handle); don't bring us blurred, dog-eared snapshots that show "Johnny" up as merely a distant smudge. Do bring us nice, clear, clean "snaps" of "Johnny," alone, too, because if he is taken with some eighteen lads from other climes the picture means little to our readers. Best of all are glossy prints, approximately three inches wide. These delight a harassed editor's heart and look like manna after a series of outsize or undersize photos, none too good for publication, have gone through the office.

Remember, it isn't bragging to let us know what "Johnny's" doing. This town takes a real interest in its "boys" and so do several hundred other servicemen from here who get the paper regularly and scan it hungrily for news of what "the other guys are doing."

People Keep Right On Being People, See?

lying right beside the alarm clock, was untouched. Entry to the residence was gained through a window.

Then, on Sunday, July 18, the police had to chase a man (had-been-drinking) out of the Central Creamery, 6331 Mission street, at 12:50 a. m. for attempting to sell ducks to customers of the creamery. The man, who gave his name as "Machine Gun" Lane from South San Francisco, had a large sack of ducks with him. The local police had to explain to him that the answer to "Wanna Buy A Duck?" is NO. They advised him not to return to Daly City and not to bring any more ducks here. Presumably, "Machine Gun" Lane did not find this vein of talk any too "ducky" for he left town hastily.

HAVE YOU AN ANSWER?

such as rationing, dim-outs, and transportation, we became lax in our civic duties.

"I am writing this article in the hope of learning the present failures of civilian defense, if it is brought about through lack of interest because nothing has happened so far, or if it is the fauld of your leaders, or are we sure that this war is already won. If it is any of the above mentioned I sure would like to know and do everything possible to see this city in its proper place for its protection, along with protecting the property and families of those boys who have gone to war, that we may maintain our cherished God-given rights.

"While writing this, I am thinking of our boys at the front, and wondering what their thoughts must be, while enduring the hardships of a cruel war. Their road is one with no turn back, but their desire to conquer dictatorships is their one hope, even though it may mean the supreme sacrifice.

"Then we, at home, enjoying our liberties are expected to do our part to preserve our happiness of life, with some home duty, and outside of joining the armed services, we at least could or should join our civilian defense forces and study some protective service, where we would be useful in a time of stress.

"This office is open for any suggestions for the good of the service, and invites any clean, constructive criticism that will build a better defense council and render the protection that we all so deserve.

"Will you help by signing and serving in a service for home protection for the duration? If so, the doors of our City Hall are always open and we welcome you for the good of our country.

"Don't hesitate to write any suggestions and mail to the Daly City Civilian Defense Council, City Hall, as they may be helpful in this cause.

"May I pause for a moment to thank all those who have so faithfully served in our ranks from the beginning, and are still performing a noble service with untiring effort. To you the glory belongs as patient home defenders."

A. J. BODIEN,
Director of the Daly City
Civilian Defense Council.

place. They were defeated by the San Mateo squad on the latter's home diamond, with a score of 7 to 4.

The Packers led in hitting, with nine, against the home towners' eight. Manager Charles Norry used a battery comprising Bogdanoff, Tamiliec and Fenech, while Castro and Silva were pitcher and catcher for San Mateo.

League standings now include San Mateo, with seven wins and two losses; Belmont, seven and three; Farallone Packers, six and three; Owl Drug, five and four; Moffat Manteca, four and five; Burlingame, two and eight; and Simmons Company, two and eight.

Marchbank park will be the scene of the Farallones' game, next Sunday, when they are scheduled to go up against the reviving Owl Drugs. Game time is 2:30 p. m.

In the preliminary morning contest at 11 o'clock, Manager Louis Marioni's Packer Juniors will meet the San Mateo Juniors in the third of a series of games, each team having a win to its credit.

Health Dept. Issues Warning About Smallpox

The San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare, this week, called to the attention of Daly City residents that smallpox cases are being reported in increasing numbers in the eastern states. The movement of the disease is westward.

"Now is the time to revaccinate!" stated Dr. Charles C. Gans, health officer. Many people do not realize, according to the department, that smallpox vaccination is not good for "a lifetime" and especially in a period when the dread disease is on the march, it is important to be vaccinated again. Naturally, anyone who has never been vaccinated at all should do so at once.

The same health bulletin pointed out that there is a case of infantile paralysis in the county and that all possible precautions should be taken against this communicable disease too.

Canadian Air Men Cheat Davey Jones

NEW and ingenious methods of locating and rescuing airmen forced down at sea have recently been devised. In R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. records are detailed reports of how hundreds of airmen's lives have been saved from the ocean under conditions which would have meant certain death a few years back.

All this has been achieved despite the many-sided problem presented when land planes are forced to attempt landings on water.

Bomber crews are taught how to brace themselves for the impact of a forced landing on water; how to inflate their dinghy and climb into it with minimum loss of time; and how to release pigeons telling their location and the time of the crash.

New types of dinghies have been designed and new kinds of food containers developed. Chief among these is the Lindholme sea rescue gear, recently adopted by the R.C.A.F.

The Lindholme gear consists of five cylinder-shaped plywood containers, four of them waterproof, linked together by 280 yards of floating cord. These are dropped from the rescue plane like a "stick" of bombs.

The center parcel contains a large rubber dinghy, capable of holding 7 or 8 men, which inflates automatically on contact with the water. The other four containers are sealed to keep out water and hold food, clothing, comforts, and warning signals.

To provide drink and nourishment are tins of water, condensed milk, emergency rations, malted milk tablets, chewing gum, and barley sugar.

For warmth there are four waterproof sleeping suits and eight "everhot" chemical bags. Shaken up with sea water and placed inside the sleeping suits, these bags dry out sodden clothing and generate heat for 96 hours. To send out signals and to attract attention are four red smoke generators.

Also included are cigarettes, matches, a pack of waterproof playing cards to while away time until a ship arrives, a baling cup and sponge, and a practical first aid outfit.

Being adrift on a raging sea under these circumstances isn't still comfortable as being at home in carpet slippers with a pipe and the evening paper but, once they have received the Lindholme rescue gear, torpedo victims and "ditched" airmen have protection against exposure and an almost 100 per cent chance of being located soon by surface craft.

Two Cases Involving Battery Will Come Before Judge Sweeney

Judge William J. Sweeney will hear the case of Jack B. Basinger, 155 Parkview avenue, tomorrow, July 23, at 2 p. m. Basinger was jailed, Sunday, July 18, following a family argument in which his wife, mother-in-law, and father-in-law were cut and bruised about the face. When Officers Roland A. Petrocchi and George Savage were unable to make peace between the participants in Sunday's row, Basinger was brought to local police headquarters and jailed for disturbing the peace and battery. His bail was set at $250 cash or $500 bond.

Basinger was released, Monday, on payment of $250 cash to appear July 23, at 2 p. m. in city court.

Another altercation which resulted in battery will be reviewed by Judge Sweeney, tomorrow afternoon, when Louis Gagnon, 6925 Mission street, is called upon to explain why he hit Auxiliary Police Officer Al Arata in the eye, without warning, Sunday, July 18, at 9:50 p. m. According to the auxiliary officer, he advised a companion of Gagnon's not to sit in the middle of Mission street because he might get hurt. Without warning, the officer said, Gagnon struck him in the eye, blacking it.

Local police jailed Gagnon on Daly City Charge 209, being drunk in a public place. He was released, Monday, on payment of $50 cash bail to appear, July 23, in city court.

Thousands See Fuchsia Show Here

The annual Fuchsia Show, which was held at the Bungalow Nursery's Hall of Flowers, July 10 and 11, was limited to amateurs only of the San Francisco branch, American Fuchsia society, and attracted spirited competition. Notable were the unusual varieties grown in hanging baskets and espaliers. Mr. and Mrs. William Sharp were awarded the gold medal of the American Fuchsia society for general excellance of hanging baskets, standards, bushes, cut blooms and arrangements.

Gustave Niederholzer received the sweepstake grand prize for collection of new introductions, also for many varieties that will be introduced in 1944.

Fred Watt was awarded several firsts on espaliered, potted plants, and standards; Ralph Edwards, first on a collection of standards; Mrs. William Roth, a first on trailing types in baskets, also first on cut blooms; Mrs. Theresa Ferrari, first on collection of corsages; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bidwell, Hillside boulevard, Daly City, first on pyramid standards; Ted Paskersen, first on a display of three plants, also first on species; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Allen, a first on arrangements.

Mrs. Rosalie Rooney entered novelties that combined vegetables and fuchsias with droll effect, by making heads and faces of vegetables with hats trimmed with fuchsias.

Approximately 3,000 visitors attended the show.

Congressman Anderson Stays In Washington

Despite the congressional recess now in effect, Congressman Jack Anderson, this district's representative in Washington, is staying in the national capitol handling problems of marked importance to the people of his district and other parts of California. Congressman Anderson does not plan to return home until later in the summer.

Among the important things keeping the congressman in Washington is the food situation, the securing of farm machinery and other important issues, according to word received here today by his local representative, Glenn Baker. The congressman told Baker he did not feel he should leave the capitol until these problems have been ironed out.

Anderson further informed Baker that the secretary of the Navy has approved an expenditure of $83,800 for improvements at Moffatt field in Sunnyvale. The improvements include the construction of a control tower, a post office and new barracks for a detachment of Waves, who will be stationed at the field. This will be the first station in the congressman's district to which women of the Navy will be assigned.

Congressman Anderson said that when he does return to this district he plans an extensive tour of the four counties he represents in Washington: San Mateo, Santa Clara, San Benito and Santa Cruz. He added that much of his time is being devoted to problems of vast interest in his district, and reports he has been markedly successful in securing cooperation in Washington on many issues which have arisen in the four counties.

Anderson declared that during his visit here in April he secured much valuable information which aided him in the solution of many problems concerning the war effort. He feels that he should make another thorough survey of the district before the reconvening of Congress in September so that he may have first hand knowledge of problems here. The congressman said he would probably spend the month of August in an extensive tour of his district.

the month of July is conducting a nation-wide campaign for the purpose of collecting all available old phonograph records so that they may be reclaimed for the manufacture of new discs.

"This drive is being held because the principal ingredient in these records is shellac, which is now frozen and therefore not available for the manufacture of records.

"Phonograph music is the only type of entertainment available to the members of our Armed Forces who are serving in the war zones, radios being prohibited. There is, therefore, a lack of entertainment for our service men and women in the immediate camp or cantonment circles in these areas.

"When these old discs have been reclaimed the War and Navy departments will supply them to our fighting forces all over the world. The Army, Navy, Marines and Merchant Marine service will receive a pro rata of records thus manufactured.

"It is believed that there are some 200,000,000 discarded phonograph records in the United States today. Hundreds of American artists are donating their talent, waiving their royalties, in producing a new supply of records for our fighting men. One can well imagine the lift that homespun music would bring to members of our Armed Forces now fighting in the nethermost corners of the earth."

Dressings give sparkle to salads

If you want those summertime salads to be devoured right down to the last shred of lettuce, then use a dressing that will change the ordinary salad into one of those delicious creations which every member of the family attacks with gusto! Doesn't matter whether it's the old-fashioned kind or a favorite from your grocery By the way, the cooked mayonnaise given below is a cross between mayonnaise and the salad dressing that's so popular nowadays.

COOKED MAYONNAISE

2 egg yolks
2 tsps. mustard
1 tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. cayenne pepper
⅛ tsp. garlic salt
¼ tsp. celery salt
¼ tsp. paprika
½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce
¼ cup vinegar
1 cup salad oil
1 tbsp. shortening
⅓ cup enriched flour
1 cup water

a. Combine egg yolks, seasonings and vinegar in deep mixing bowl.

b. Add oil without stirring.

c. Make sauce: Melt shortening in top of 1-qt. double boiler. Add flour and gradually add water, stirring until smooth. Cook over rapidly boiling water until mixture is thick and smooth, about 10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

d. Pour hot, cooked sauce into bowl with oil and vinegar mixture and beat with rotary beater until smooth and fluffy, about 3 minutes.

e. Store in covered jar in cool place. Makes 1 pt.

PIQUANT FRENCH DRESSING—Combine ¼-cup vinegar or lemon juice with ¾-cup oil, preferably olive oil. Season with ¾ tsp. salt, a dash of pepper, ¼ tsp. paprika and 1 tbsp. sugar. Pour into a bottle or jar containing a bud of garlic and a whole clove. Shake vigorously Remove garlic after an hour or two if you just want a tiny hint of the garlic flavor. Always shake before using.

HOMAYONNAISE—Beat together 1 egg yolk, 1 tsp. salt, ½ tsp. dry mustard and ½ tsp. sugar. When frothy, add 1 tbsp. vinegar or lemon juice and beat again. Beat in salad or olive oil very gradually, adding just a few drops at a time to prevent curdling, until ¾ cup oil has been added. When mixture thickens, add another tbsp. vinegar or lemon juice and beat again.

FRUIT SALAD DESSERT DRESSING—Combine 1 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, homemade or prepared dressing, with 1 cup creamy cottage cheese and ¼-cup honey. Serve generously over fruit salad desserts. Delightful for those luncheon salads that are a meal in themselves.

Cypress Circle Announces Whist

Cypress Circle No. 14, U. A. O. D., has a new meeting place. The group formerly held their meetings and whists at Colombo hall but hereafter the location will be Colma Community Center building, Dunks street.

First event to be held at the new headquarters will be the public whist party to be given Wednesday evening, July 28, beginning at 8:30.

Mrs. Isabelle Liberti will be chairman, with Miss Virginia Fellman as co-chairman. There will be a cash first prize and other valuable awards. The public is invited to attend.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

EVEN though it is necessary to serve the same meat over and over, it can be given new guises by combination with different vegetables, noodles or potatoes.

For instance, a spaghetti sauce made with meat balls or chopped cubed steak, is a hearty and usually popular dish. Ground pork mixed with cooked rice and seasoned with onion makes delicious patties. Beef brisket cut into squares and combined with lima beans, onions and uncooked rice to make a thick stew is a filling and flavorful dish. Lamb in a curry sauce served with noodles makes a dish which will bring forth requests to "Let's have that again."

When planning your Sunday dinner this week, you will find fresh rhubarb, asparagus, beans, carrots, mushrooms, onions, peas, spinach and tomatoes the easiest on your budget, according to the A & P Food Service for Homemakers.

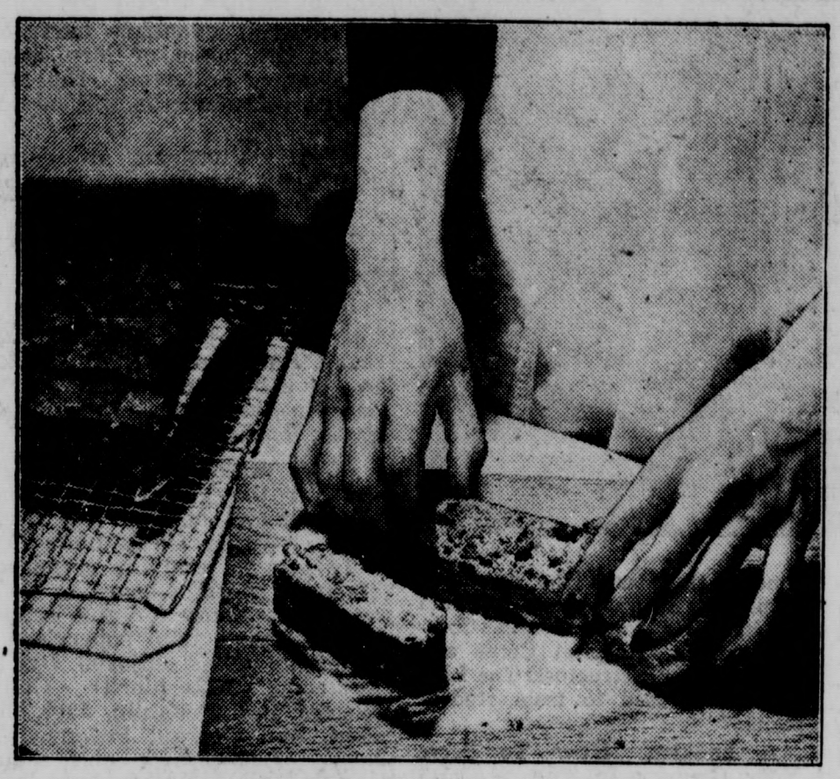

The following menus may help to save you time and worry:

BOX THESE RAISIN NUT BARS

LUNCH box, box for camp, bread box will all welcome the addition of these Raisin Nut Bars. They're a "company" sweet — but don't wait for company before you make them. That boy at camp, that man and those children who trudge off each morning with their lunch boxes, are more important these days than any casual "droppers-in." Treat them to a sweet that will cheer and nourish; a sweet that has the incomparable flavor of coffee to top it off! Collect those precious drops of coffee that are left over after meals — and save them in a covered glass jar in the refrigerator. They're too good to waste; use them in these Raisin Nut Bars.

Raisin Nut Bars

⅓ cup leftover coffee
⅓ cup molasses
2 cups seedless raisins
1 cup sifted flour
¾ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup shortening
½ cup sugar
2 eggs
½ cup cut nutmeats

Heat coffee and molasses together until almost boiling. Add raisins and let stand until cool. Mix and sift flour, salt, soda and spices. Cream shortening and sugar together, add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add raisin mixture and blend well. Stir in flour and nuts. Spread in 10 x 8 x 2 greased pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 45 minutes. Cool; cut into bars, and roll in granulated or powdered sugar, if desired. Yield: 16 large bars.

A Meal Nutritionally Right for Summer Days

KEEP PLANTING V FOR VICTORY

JUST as you wear summer-weight clothes to feel fit and comfortable, try light weight, nutritionally right meals. Such a meal would be a Victory Garden Salad Bowl. Fresh-picked leafy-green vegetables, crispy radishes, firm tomatoes, pungent onions and other vegetables, crispy-chilled in your refrigerator and then tossed till all are coated with a fresh-mixed salad dressing. Ah, there is a summer meal that is crunchy, satisfying eating.

HERE is a great secret to it all! Harvest just what you need and no more for a brimming salad bowl. Waste no minutes in putting your Victory Garden plucking right into your refrigerator. There is little Vitamin C loss that way. Your dependable refrigerator will see to that, especially if you have kept it cleaned and oiled and in good repair. But if your refrigerator is not working just right — and you can't remedy it, tell your refrigerator repair dealer about it. He'll be glad to advise you.

VICTORY SALAD BOWL

½ head lettuce broken into 1½ inch pieces
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tomatoes, cut in eighths
1 cup chopped celery ⅓ cup chopped onion
½ cup sliced radishes 1 cup chopped cucumber
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1 clove finely chopped garlic

VICTORY DRESSING

½ teaspoon salt ¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon dry mustard ¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons vinegar ½ cup salad oil

Mix salt, pepper and paprika in salad bowl with 1 tablespoon salad oil. Then add remaining oil and vinegar and blend well with fork. Add salad vegetables and toss. Serves 6 to 8 persons.

THESE SUMMER MONTHS is the time when Victory Garden crops will be producing bountifully. Do not waste any of this fine, fresh food. Have salads in variety. Serve quick-cooked vegetable plates. And when a garden row of vegetables becomes depleted, start digging anew and planting anew for crop rotations right through late summer, fall and winter. You will be surprised how it will cut down your food bills too!

To help the public comply fully with blackout regulations, the company published in its monthly magazine the recommendations of the Blackout committee of the San Francisco Civilian Defense council on how to make homes or essential rooms lightproof, including the various materials to use and how to install them. It reprinted and distributed many thousands of the Blackout committee's pamphlet and printed and distributed large quantities of recommendations from other reliable sources. It arranged displays in many of its offices showing model blackout windows and samples of materials required for them. It also aided in the distribution of a pamphlet of information on how to blackout stores and other commercial establishments.

P. G. and E. also conducted an extensive campaign to help the public comply with dimout orders. It publicized widely the regulations and in addition explained fully how to continue to use lights in and about homes, in stores and other commercial establishments, in window displays, on building exteriors, for illuminated signs, in and around industrial plants, in outdoor ground areas, streets and highways, and for traffic signs and signals.

Another feature of the company's educational program was the publication in more than 300 newspapers of a series of special advertisements explaining blackout and dimout regulations and telling how to comply with them and still have ample light.

The company's lighting specialists cooperated extensively with local authorities in their communities, acting as consultants on lighting problems, inspecting lighting facilities to see if they complied with orders and assisting in many other ways.

Bank Of America Names Official

Carl F. Wente, "native son," widely known California banker and member of a prominent Livermore family, has been appointed senior vice-president of the Bank of America, according to L. M. Giannini, president of the bank.

He will work closely with President Giannini in directing the affairs of the institution, it was stated.

Wente has been president of the Central Bank of Oakland since 1937, the institution in which he began his career as a "runner" after graduating from schools in Livermore in 1907.

His career is the typical American success story. A few months after his youthful initiation into banking with the Oakland institution he returned to Livermore and joined the staff of the local First National bank and in due time worked his way up to the position of assistant cashier.

In 1918, in search of wider fields for his talents, he joined the Bank of America statewide organization, going first to the branch in Madera, then to Visalia, Fresno, Modesto and Stockton, accumulating experience in all departments of banking and advancing steadily until he was made supervisor of credits for the entire Bank of America system.

He is succeeded as president of the Central Bank by Frank N. Belgrano jr., who has been prominently identified with banking in California for many years and has been president of Pacific National Fire Insurance company since 1930.

WAVES PERFORM IMPORTANT NAVY DUTIES

"It's all yours," says this Yeoman 1/c as he turns over a batch of correspondence to the WAVE who is taking over his desk job. That they are both pleased is evident for he's now free to be assigned to active duty aboard one of Uncle Sam's ships, and she's in the Navy playing an important part in helping win the war.

As a Yeoman this WAVE is doing work for which her past experience best fits her. However, there are many other opportunities for girls who can qualify upon completion of their training period. Among them are jobs as Aerographers, Storekeepers, Aviation Machinists' Mates, Radio Communications, Hospital Corps and Link Trainer instructors. The Link Trainer is used to train student pilots.

A booklet, "How To Serve Your Country In The WAVES or SPARS," outlines the types of jobs for enlisted women, the ratings, and the amount of money a WAVE or SPAR receives upon joining the Navy. A copy can be obtained at your nearest Recruiting Station or Office of Naval Officer Procurement.

Crane Asks Housewives To Salvage Tin Cans

R. L. Crane jr., Daly City Salvage for Victory chairman, reminded local housewives today that there is still urgent need for all tin cans. He will soon announce the summer pickup dates and in the meantime he appealed to their patriotism in saving and properly preparing the tins.

"For those who have forgotten how, here's the procedure: wash tin can thoroughly, remove labels, cut ends out and insert into can, flatten can. Save the accumulation of tins in some suitable container until the pickup date. They will be used to "help win the war," of that you may be sure!" Crane said.

BEST FOOD For QUICK ENERGY

BEST FOR THE ARMED FORCES
BEST FOR YOUR FAMILY

Meat, with its elements of proteins, B vitamins and minerals, is needed in the balanced diet for servicemen and civilians alike. That's a big reason why today's demands, together with present market conditions, have brought on our rationing program.

We know it's discouraging to try to buy sufficient meat for your family, today. But it is important that the nation's health be maintained so the total war effort may not be hampered.

We dealers have had troubles increased many times over, too. And not the least of these is caused by the genuine interest we take in trying to protect our customers in every way possible. There's nothing we leave undone which may aid in solving your meat-buying problems.
